3. Nairobi work programme on impacts, vulnerability and adaptation to climate change

7. Background: SBSTA 44, 45 and 46 concluded that a set of activities would be undertaken under the Nairobi work programme on impacts, vulnerability and adaptation to climate change (NWP) to inform adaptation planning and actions at the regional, national and subnational levels in a way that enhances the role of the NWP as a knowledge hub that supports enhanced action on adaptation.⁴

8. Recognizing the role of the NWP in providing support in the areas of adaptation knowledge and related stakeholder engagement to other workstreams and constituted bodies under the Convention and the potential role it can play in new processes under the Paris Agreement and decision 1/CP.21, SBSTA 44 invited the Adaptation Committee (AC), the Least Developed Countries Expert Group (LEG) and other relevant bodies to consider providing recommendations for activities to be undertaken under the NWP in supporting these processes.⁵

9. SBSTA 44⁶ also invited Parties, NWP partner organizations and other relevant organizations to submit information, by 20 September 2017, on the following:⁷

(a) Topics such as good practices, lessons learned and available tools and methods, based on their recent work in the area of human settlements and adaptation;

(b) Lessons learned and good practices in relation to adaptation actions and plans that could enhance economic diversification and have mitigation co-benefits;

(c) Indicators of adaptation and resilience at the national and/or local level or for specific sectors.

10. SBSTA 44 requested the secretariat to utilize the submissions referred to in paragraph 9(a) above to inform the 11th Focal Point Forum on human settlements and adaptation, to be held in conjunction with SBSTA 47.⁸

11. SBSTA 45 requested the secretariat to undertake the activities recommended by the AC and the LEG under the guidance of the Chair of the SBSTA, in particular:

(a) Preparation of an overview of the landscape of existing platforms, including gaps, in collaboration with the Climate Technology Centre and Network (CTCN), with a view to reporting back to the AC at its 12th meeting on progress made;⁹

(b) Engagement of NWP partner organizations in supporting various activities of the LEG in providing overall technical support to the least developed countries, including the preparation of an information paper on considerations regarding vulnerable communities, groups and ecosystems in the context of the process to formulate and implement national adaptation plans.¹⁰

12. Action: The SBSTA will be invited to consider the progress made in implementing the activities under the NWP referred to in paragraphs 9, 10 and 11 above.

13. Local communities and indigenous peoples platform

60. Background: COP 21 recognized the need to strengthen knowledge, technologies, practices and efforts of local communities and indigenous peoples related to addressing and responding to climate change, and established a platform for the exchange of experiences and sharing of best practices on mitigation and adaptation in a holistic and integrated manner.⁵⁹

61. COP 22 agreed to adopt an incremental approach to developing the local communities and indigenous peoples platform with a view to ensuring its effective operationalization.⁶⁰ As part of an incremental approach, the Chair of the SBSTA convened an open multi-stakeholder dialogue on the operationalization of the platform in conjunction with SBSTA 46 and SBI 46.⁶¹ The dialogue included discussions among Parties, representatives of local communities, indigenous peoples organizations and other relevant organizations on the three proposed functions of the platform (relating to knowledge, building capacity for engagement, and climate change policies and actions) and possible ways and modalities of fulfilling these functions.

62. COP 22 requested the secretariat to prepare a report on the dialogue, which was to also draw on the submissions from Parties and other stakeholders on the purpose, content and structure of the platform,⁶² and requested SBSTA 47 to consider the report under a new agenda item, “Local communities and indigenous peoples platform”.⁶³
